

Student satisfaction survey

Termination period:

Study programme:

Subject:

Name and surname of teachers:

	1 excellent	2 very good	3 well	4 sufficiently	5 insufficiently
Course content and inclusion in the study programme
Importance of the course for your profile in the study program
Inclusion of the course in your study plan and connection with other subjects
Meeting the objectives of the course
Course content with respect to expectations
Scope of instruction in relation to the number of credits
Time distribution of lectures
Time Distribution of Seminars / Exercises
Organization of classes
Teacher's adherence to the time schedule
Adherence to the content schedule
Complementing teaching with consultations
Integrating e-learning into the subject
Forms and methods of teaching
Variety of teaching methods
Systematic – logical continuity of the information provided
Interactivity of teaching – active involvement of the student
Illustrative teaching - use of practical examples and case studies
Scientificity – integration of modern knowledge of science and research into the content of the course
Durability - consolidation of theoretical knowledge during seminars/exercises
Practicality - interconnection of acquired knowledge and practice
Spatial and technical equipment of teaching
Use of audiovisual aids
Use of modern information and educational means
Use of professional software during classes
e-Learning
Availability of literature

Student satisfaction survey

Termination period:

Study programme:

Subject:

Name and surname of teachers:

Recommended literature corresponds to the content of the course
Quality of study materials provided to teachers
Availability of recommended literature
Access to literature in the e-library
Staffing of the course
Expertise of teachers
Clarity, clarity and comprehensibility of interpretation
Teacher's creativity
Encouraging and developing student activity during class
Motivation of students from the teacher's side
Space for discussion and expressing one's own opinion
Evaluation of study results
Sufficient information about the conditions of the evaluation
Objectivity of the teacher's assessment of the student
Continuous assessment of knowledge during the semester
Teacher's approach to objections
Please list the most serious problems you have encountered during your studies and suggestions for improvement.
What do you think would contribute to increasing the quality of education?

Student satisfaction survey

Termination period:

Study programme:

Subject:

Name and surname of teachers: